HEARTBEATS TO DRUM BEATS

Instructor: Ronald Bucknam
Do you think you're too uncoordinated, too shy or too old to try drumming? Forget that! Anyone with a heartbeat is already drumming. You will learn a simple method to help you hear and create beats. We'll also discuss and listen to music from various cultures with strong drum traditions. Bring any kind of drum. Or, grab a bucket or big cooking pot, anything that has a nice tone and doesn't hurt your hands to strike. (Avoid paint buckets with sharp edges.) Expect to be smiling.
