LAKWOOD HERITAGE, CULTURE & THE ARTS CLASSES

Summer 2017

WELCOME! Lakewood's Heritage, Culture & the Arts (HCA) Classes publication is dedicated to offering creative classes and exciting summer camps and programs. We welcome your participation whether it's a challenging new class or expanding your creative talents!

ENROLLMENT DISCOUNT

HCA offers several types of discounts, applied automatically upon registration.

EARLY REGISTRATION: To receive this discount, class registration must be completed at least seven days in advance of the first class date.

CLASS REGISTRATION

Online: Lakewood.org/Register

By phone: 303.987.5436 (WH) or 303.987.7845 (LCC)

In person: At any of our three HCA facilities listed below.

SAVE YOUR CLASSES BY SIGNING UP EARLY!

Sign up early to avoid class cancellations. Classes with low enrollment are generally canceled three days prior to the first meeting date.

REFUND, CREDIT AND TRANSFER POLICY

Patrons requesting refunds four or more days before the class start date will be charged a 15 percent processing fee. Refund requests within three days of start date will receive a 50 percent refund. No refunds are given once the class has started. Should we cancel a class, a full refund will be issued to your household account, and you will be notified to discuss options. We understand extenuating circumstances do arise and cancellations can be reviewed on a case by case basis. Refunds are issued via check or credit card; no cash refunds. Household credit may be used for any City of Lakewood program. No processing fees will be charged if you transfer to any other current class being offered; if there is a balance due, payment is required at time of transfer. If there is a credit due, it will be placed in your household account for future use.

ON THE COVER

Sunday Sundae Clay Sculpture for Families

Part of our Friday Night Fine Arts series, Sunday Sundae was a workshop where students used their imagination to build a ceramic ice cream sculpture topped with their favorite toppings. SO FUN!

WRITING A PERSONAL HISTORY

Instructor: Joann Price

Do you have a story to tell? Your own story, that of a friend, a parent or family member? Personal histories, often called life stories, include memoirs, autobiographies and narratives about individuals or families. Writing from personal voice and perspective, writers often use description, photo, documents and interviews. Bring your notes, recollections, photos, your perspectives and learn techniques for writing.

BONFILS GIRL PERFORMANCE

Presenter: Starring Cathy Washburn; directed by Rich Beall; and written by Mike Broemmel and Seth Holley.

Frederick Bonfils was a down and dirty businessman in the days when Colorado was still a part of the legendary Wild West. Frederick's younger daughter Helen would achieve amazing success in the early part of the 20th century in her own right as the first female producer on Broadway and the publisher of the Denver Post among other achievements. But Helen Bonfils always felt she lived in her father's shadow. This one-person show brings Helen to the stage, reflecting on the ins and outs, ups and downs and maybe a few of the vices in her life. Light hors d'oeuvres served.

HEDY LAMARR: STAND STILL & LOOK STUPID

Presenter: Starring Alison Vance; directed by Ren Manley; and written by Mike Broemmel, with Cathy Washburn and Seth Holley.

Few people know the whole story when it comes to screen icon Hedy Lamarr. Actress and pin-up girl in Hollywood, Lamarr was known as "the most beautiful girl in the world." But she was also a brilliant inventor who conceived the technology which laid groundwork for GPS, WiFi, TV remote controls and much more. This play received the unique clearance of the Estate of Hedy Lamarr and her children to bring this amazing story to the stage.

INSTRUCTOR BIOS

COURTNEY ARMSTRONG

Courtney has been drawing and painting since a child and in college studied music and art. She is member of Mountainside Art Guild, has won awards for her work and has had several solo show at the local, regional and national levels.

DAVE BARRY

Dave is a Colorado native and has been a professional photographer since 1975. He has taught at numerous venues in Colorado including Front Range Community College, Colorado Photographic Art Center, Working with Artists and others.

PAMELA BLISS

Pamela has been weaving for more than 20 years and teaching locally for over 10 years. As a teacher, she is known for her sense of humor and warmth. One student said, "Pamela takes the fear out of learning something new."

LOAY BOGCESS

Loay is a lifetime learner and artist conversant in multiple mediums including clay, weaving, bookbinding, printmaking, and photography. She received a BFA from CU Denver. In 2007 Loay found her passion in mud and fire.

MICHAEL BOWE

Michael is a student of both functional and decorative ceramic work and has a special interest in low fire methods and techniques. Michael is a performing artist and writer who happily discovered a love for ceramic art in the not-too-distant past.

TERESA CARSON

Teresa has always had a natural affinity to the creation of all things art. At a very early age, she decided that she would be an art teacher. Teresa holds both bachelor's and master's of arts in education from the University of New Mexico. While her main emphasis is a specialization in ceramics, her minor is fine arts drawing.

HOLLY CAUSEY

Holly has been learning and teaching art, fiber arts, cooking, sewing, crafts and quilting for many years. In working with children she has found joy and fun and loves to explore their world and their openness to creativity. Holly approaches these subjects not just as a project but as a passion.

EMILY ERKMAN

Emily has been training performers since 2004. She is the owner and operator of Miss Emily's Voice Studio and is passionate about helping others expand on their natural talent and love of music.

GAIL FIRMIN

Gail mentors for the Developmental Disability Resource Center's Art & Soul program, teaching art classes to disabled adults for the past 10 years. She teaches drawing and watercolor classes for the City of Lakewood. She is active with the Lakewood Arts Council and a member of its co-op gallery, exhibiting her work in graphite, watercolor, pastels and mixed media.

KRISTEE GRAHAM

Kristee is an internationally collected fine art painter, sculptor and jewelry designer. Her work has been shown at various fairs and festivals throughout Colorado and in many wholesale and retail venues in the U.S. Kristee is now focusing her craft on inspiring young people to follow their creative dreams.

JOY JENSEN

After a lifetime of working with fiber, Joy has been weaving for over nine years and continues to love all of the possibilities that are presented through color, texture and pattern. There seems to be infinite opportunity to learn and create through weaving. As a teacher, Joy loves helping students develop their projects and see them through to completion and success!

GARY JUGERT

Gary is a lifelong Lakewood resident who plays piano, guitar, and way too much ukulele. He's composed a number of musicals, is finishing his first symphony, wrote a couple of novels, founded the Rocky Mountain Ukulele Orchestra, likes cats, and works at Starbucks to pay bills.

DIANNE LOSASSO

Dianne is a talented instructor, international performer and choreographer. She is the owner and manager of Dance Fusion International. She was a performing member of the renowned AVAZ International Dance Theater in Los Angeles and has appeared on TV and in instructional dance DVDs.

Visit Lakewood.org/Classes to find out more about our amazing instructors!

INSTRUCTOR BIOS

ISMAEL LOZANO

Ismael “Izzy” is a Colorado native and has worked in the Denver Public School system for over 17 years at every grade level as well as the collegiate level at Metropolitan State University. He has taught for the Art Students League of Denver and has taught classes at the Smithsonian Latino Center in Washington, D.C. He has worked as an oil painter for over 22 years. His work currently hangs in collections as far east as Philadelphia, and he has shown as far west as Diablo Valley College in California.

JAMES MCLELLAN

James has been working in ceramics for more than 18 years. Since receiving his BFA from Metropolitan State College of Denver, he has continued teaching and showing his work in Denver and out of state. James enjoys working in all of the ceramic arts and teaching beginners on the pottery wheel.

JUDY MCCANN

Judy's work is a culmination of years of studying pottery and jewelry art forms. Her love of pottery led to her interest in metalsmithing. Judy is the founding member of “Painted with Fire Art Guild” at Washington Heights and is involved in many summer markets.

MICHELLE MICHELSEN

A graduate of the University of Nevada - Reno, Michelle started dancing at 5 years old in northern Nevada, training in ballet, tap, jazz, modern and hip-hop. She started teaching in 2005 and was introduced to partnership dancing in 2007. Michelle enjoys every aspect of movement and sharing it with those who wish to learn.

RITA MOORE

Rita has been an artist for over 40 years. She began as an artist/graphics illustrator for the Boeing Company in Seattle. She is a private instructor and freelance artist as well as an instructor at Washington Heights teaching the art of painting on porcelain. She has a compassion for wildlife, animals and humans, which influences her art.

NORBERT NAGEL

Norbert has served as co-president of the Pastel Society of Colorado. Most of his work is done plein-air, working to capture the feeling of a landscape more than copying it. His background includes working with regional pastel artists and an academic background at Metropolitan State College of Denver and Colorado State University. He has won several awards for his plein air paintings.

CALI NASS

Cali has been involved with dance since the age of 3, and has a passion for teaching. She has studied many styles of dance and attended multiple studios that would include Maxine's Studio of Dance, Metamorphosis, The Young Dance Academy, and Annita's Dance Studio. She hopes to ignite a passionate spark in all of her students for the world of dance, along with self-confidence and self-expression.

CHRISTINE O'DEA

Christine has an education degree from the University of Maine and a fine arts degree from Metropolitan State College of Denver. She shows her ceramic/mixed media installations in local galleries.

MARÍA CECILIA OLANO SARDI

María's first contact with dance is owed to Brazilian jazz where she acquired her first technical style and performed interpretation stage dancing both in theater and in television drama. She studied at the Martha Graham School where she worked with renowned choreographers and teachers including Martha Graham herself. María was awarded her doctoral dissertation from Catholic University in Valencia, Spain, in January 2016.

LAUREY PATTEN

Laurey is a certified PMC jewelry artist, a potter, and a fiction writer who loves to teach. Her fascination with clay began while working as an archaeologist and site illustrator on medieval castle sites in England. Her work has been shown in Washington, D.C., Virginia, and Colorado. In her “spare” time, Laurey enjoys painting, sketching, herbology, writing fantasy, and just plain having fun.

ALINA DEAC PELEGRIN

Alina has been an illustrator, painter and expressive sculptor over the last couple of decades. She turned her attention to mosaic fine arts with explorations in color and andamento, followed by advanced studies in application and cutting techniques. Her mosaics and illustrations have been exhibited in several shows on the West Coast and Colorado. Alina is a member of the Colorado Mosaic Artists Organization and the Society of American Mosaics Artists.

INSTRUCTOR BIOS

JOANN PRICE

Joann Price is a professional, experienced individual with more than 15 years in both post-secondary academic education and a freelance academic author. She also possesses more than 20 years in business and finance that included financial planning, bank management, and securities and investment sales. Based on her life and career experiences, she possess the unique ability to communicate, write, research and edit across a broad spectrum of business and educational settings.

SLAWA RADZISZEWSKA

Slawa specializes in realistic portraiture, figure painting and other representational imagery. She works from live models or photos, using oils, pastels, charcoal, or watercolor. Slawa believes that creating art will fulfill our potential and that in learning new skills, we always stretch ourselves beyond our limits. As a result, this process can bring joy not only to us, but to others as well.

JESSICA RIGGS

Jessica graduated from Colorado State University with a B.A. in dance and a B.S. in dietetics. During college she had the opportunity to work with many well-known choreographers and teachers. Her own choreography was selected on multiple occasions for showcase in the CSU Fall and Spring Dance Concerts as well as for adjudication in the 2007 American Dance Festival.

JUDITH SCOTT

Judith has an MFA from Denver University. For over 30 years she has been teaching various mediums. Currently she teaches at the Lakewood Cultural Center, the Denver Botanic Gardens and the Art Students League in Denver. She is a lifetime member of the Pastel Society of America, winning many awards over the years and is included in several art books.

JOSEPH SIKORA

Joseph was trained in traditional woodcarving in Bavaria, Germany. He worked for 10 years as a freelance carver while in Bavaria and returned to the United States in 1991. He displays and sells his pieces at Sikora Woodcarving in Louisville.

BOB SMITH

A renowned artist and studio potter for more than 40 years, Bob started his career working in functional stoneware but quickly moved to low-fire work, especially raku. His current work reflects an increased interest in Terra sigillata and saggar firing, which has made a large impact on his work in scale, gesture and surface treatment.

THERESE SPEARS

Therese is a Black Belt Nia Instructor who has been teaching since 1998. She is an AFAA fitness professional that also teaches Zumba, Mat Pilates, Yoga and more. Therese strives to be an inspiration to all her students by showing them how to be fit, happy and healthy.

ANNE VAN LEEUWEN

Anne has been a hand papermaker for over 30 years and has taught paper making and cyanotype. She received her BA in Design from UCLA. Her papermaking training includes work at Carriage House (Brookline, MA); Fabriano, Italy (Paper's first home in Europe); Taos Papermaking; and the International Association of Papermakers workshop's in Italy and France.

SUMI VON DASSOW

Well-known as a potter, teacher and writer, Sumi has work that includes brightly glazed functional pieces, burnished and pit-fired vessels and ceramic sculpture. She has participated in the Cherry Creek Arts Festival and has won numerous awards in major national and local shows.

ARTIST HIGHLIGHT

Anne Van Leeuwen

Here are just a few of the reasons why I love Washington Heights Arts Center:

- This is a lively artist community
- A great place for students to learn and feel involved
- An old school house is perfect for artistic endeavors
- Excellent instructors and working artists
- Many classes and choices for expression and much, much more!

I began teaching papermaking here last August, and I feel fortunate to be in such a supportive atmosphere.

My classes include beginning papermaking; here is a chance to find out the possibilities of paper as a art medium. You will earn the basics in class. Advanced papermaking classes offer those who are comfortable with basic processes, a chance to pursue these methods further and create sophisticated paper art. I look forward to seeing you in class!
