LAKWOOD HERITAGE, CULTURE & THE ARTS CLASSES

Fall 2017

WELCOME! Lakewood's Heritage, Culture & the Arts (HCA) Classes publication is dedicated to offering creative classes and exciting fall camps and programs. We welcome your participation whether it's a challenging new class or expanding your creative talents!

ENROLLMENT DISCOUNTS

HCA offers several types of discounts, applied automatically upon registration.

EARLY REGISTRATION: To receive this discount, class registration must be completed at least seven days in advance of the first class date.

CLASS REGISTRATION

Online: Lakewood.org/Register

By phone: 303.987.5436 (WH), 303.987.7845 (LCC), 303.987.7850 (LHC)

In person: At any of our three HCA facilities listed below.

SAVE YOUR CLASSES BY SIGNING UP EARLY!

Sign up early to avoid class cancellations. Classes with low enrollment are generally canceled three days prior to the first meeting date.

REFUND, CREDIT AND TRANSFER POLICY

Patrons requesting refunds four or more days before the class start date will be charged a 15 percent processing fee. Refund requests within three days of start date will receive a 50 percent refund. No refunds are given once the class has started. Should we cancel a class, a full refund will be issued to your household account, and you will be notified to discuss options. We understand extenuating circumstances do arise and cancellations can be reviewed on a case by case basis. Refunds are issued via check or credit card; no cash refunds. Household credit may be used for any City of Lakewood program. No processing fees will be charged if you transfer to any other current class being offered; if there is a balance due, payment is required at time of transfer. If there is a credit due, it will be placed in your household account for future use.

ON THE COVER

PUMPKIN CARVING WORKSHOP

Grab your best friend, spouse, or neighbor because you are invited to create a superb carved pumpkin under the guidance of a master pumpkin carver!

To top off the evening, pumpkins will be illuminated in our plaza for the Grand Lighting Ceremony and a spook-tacular photo opportunity.

DANCE CLASSES

Information: 303.987.7845

Ages: 13 and up (unless otherwise noted)

SEASON DISCOUNT

Receive a $15 discount when you register for all three sessions.

DROP-IN:

All classes are registration classes with drop-in option. For those who can only participate when schedule permits, drop-in fee is $10 for a one hour class, $12 for 1.5 hour class. For classes in which a partner is required, price is per person.

PRIVATE DANCE INSTRUCTION

Private dance instruction is available by appointment. Book a single, three or five-lesson package in the dance of your choice. Wedding dance instruction is also offered using the couple's chosen music. Couple wedding dance can be choreographed for an additional set fee. Call 303.987.7877 for pricing and information.

BALLET: TEEN/ADULT

Instructor: Jessica Riggs

Whether you've had years of experience or want to start again, this class offers a wonderful and fun environment to develop strength, agility, flexibility, and fluidity of movement. Steps are practiced in classical and contemporary combinations in center and across the floor. *Teens, been wanting a class of your very own? Take a peek in the Youth section for Ballet for Teens!

Ages: 16 and up

BALLROOM: LATIN BEGINNERS

Instructor: Dianne Losasso

Learn three different and popular styles of Latin dance. For the rumba and cha-cha, you utilize Latin styling in hip and arm movements as you have fun moving to the tropical rhythms of the Caribbean. Learn the Argentine Tango in a combination of short, simple patterns as tango music has an easy-to-hear beat, allowing easy mastery with the steps. Classes are designed to have you up and dancing as quickly as possible, and the curriculum is progressive starting with fundamentals, rhythm, connection between the leader and follower and improvisation. Partner is required.

BALLROOM: SWING

Instructor: Dianne Losasso

A true "American Dance", East Coast Swing, aka Jitterbug, Boogie-Woogie and Rock & Roll is a descendant of Lindy Hop. It dates back to the 1920's where the African-American community discovered the Charleston and Lindy while dancing to Jazz music. Popular orchestras such as Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw, Tommy Dorsey and Glen Miller supplied the music of the day and are still great as this dance continues to be popular with all age groups as music is available from all time eras. Partner is required.

DANCE FITNESS: LATIN DANCE BLAST

Instructor: Dianne Losasso

Great for physical and mental exercise! Start out learning basic footwork patterns of favorite Latin dances: salsa, cha cha and rumba including salsa "shines" which are various foot patterns danced when partners separate (typically done in salsa). Later we'll pair up to show how this footwork will work in partner dancing. Singles and couples welcome. Pair this class with Swingin' to the Beat yond to receive the three-class session discount.

DANCE FITNESS: NIA

Instructor: Certified Nia Black Belt, Therese Spears

This creative, barefoot, nonimpact aerobics movement blends the principles and concepts of modern and jazz dance, Duncan and Alexander Technique, Tai-chi, Tae-kwon-do and Aikido with other healing forms. It is a softer flowing modality that uses safe, functional and natural movements, providing protection to the joints and bones while developing strength, flexibility, relaxation and endurance. Move your body YOUR WAY to feel more passion, vitality and groundedness.

GET A HANDLE ON IT

Instructor: Sumi von Dassow

Are you intimidated by making handles? Many pots need handles, including mugs, teapots, casserole dishes and others - and there are as many ways of making handles as there are potters. They can be pulled, extruded, thrown on the wheel, or woven from cane. We'll explore as many kinds of handles as we can, and hope to conquer your fear of handles!

GLAZING & DECORATING

Instructor: Sumi von Dassow

Class will focus on using high-fire glazes for both electric and gas kilns. We will explore how multiple glazes interact and learn how to choose the most appropriate glazes for each form. Various methods of glaze application will be covered including pouring, dipping and spraying, as well as the use of mask and resist materials. Bring as many bisque-fired pots as you can (cone 6 or higher clay). Previous pottery experience required.

SODA KILN POTTERY CLASS

Instructor: James McLellan

This is a glazing process where sodium carbonate is introduced at high temperature in a kiln. This creates soda vapors that land on pottery forming a glaze to create unique textured surface treatments. This firing is a variation of salt firing techniques developed in Europe in the 13th Century. Topics include creating work, surface approaches and placement in kiln for good results. Pottery experience required.

WOOD FIRING WORKSHOP WS

Instructor: Loay Boggess

Join us for a wood firing and enjoy the camaraderie of the group experience as we prepare the wood and tend the fire. Our mini kiln reaches cone 8-10 in about five hours. Wood fired ceramics have a special patina from the deposit of ash and the mark of flame. We load your reduction-glazed bisque stoneware the night before the firing and ask that you wad the bottom of the work by Saturday afternoon. Limit six pieces or as space allows. Your registration fee pays for one pot. Firing fees are $5-$8 per pot and the remaining balance is due on the day of firing. Additional instructions will be on your receipt.

SODA FIRED POTTERY

Instructor: James McLellan

A mixture of soda ash and water is introduced into the kiln near the end of the firing. Unique textures and surface finishes result as the vaporized mixture is carried by the gas flames over the artwork. Pots may be left for firing or you may observe the loading at noon the day prior to firing. On the firing day, you may observe the introduction of soda ash to the kiln during the final phase of the firing. See instructor for details. A $3 initial registration fee is required when you register. The remaining balance will be due on the loading day. The fee is based on the number and size of pots ($3-$10 per pot). BONFILS GIRL PERFORMANCE

By Mike Broemmel and Seth Holley, directed by Rich Beall and starring Cathy Washburn

Frederick Bonfils was a down and dirty businessman in the days when Colorado was still a part of the legendary Wild West. Frederick's younger daughter Helen would achieve amazing success in the early part of the 20th century in her own right as the first female producer on Broadway and the publisher of the Denver Post among other achievements. But Helen Bonfils always felt she lived in her father's shadow. This one-person show brings Helen to the stage, reflecting on the ins and outs, ups and downs and maybe a few of the vices in her life. Light hors d'oeuvres served.

HEDY LAMARR: STAND STILL & LOOK STUPID

Written by Mike Broemmel, with Cathy Washburn and Seth Holley

Few people know the whole story when it comes to screen icon Hedy Lamarr. Actress and pin-up girl in Hollywood, Lamarr was known as "the most beautiful girl in the world." But she was also a brilliant inventor who conceived of the technology which laid groundwork for GPS, WiFi, TV remote controls and much more. This play received the unique clearance of the Estate of Hedy Lamarr and her children to bring this amazing story to the stage. Light hors d'oeuvres served.

INSTRUCTOR BIOS

MANNY ARMENDARIZ

Manny has been dancing since the age of 15. He is currently studying to become a computer engineer at Metro State. His main form of dancing is breaking and has been doing it for 12 years. He learned break dancing from his father and various crews. In the past he danced with GET (Get with It) and is currently with Inner City. His skills are abstract and pristine and believes strongly in passing knowledge to youth with patience and time.

DAVE BARRY

Dave is a Colorado native and has been a professional photographer since 1975. He has taught at numerous venues in Colorado including Front Range Community College, Colorado Photographic Art Center, Working with Artists and others.

PAMELA BLISS

Pamela has been weaving for more than 20 years and teaching locally for over 10 years. As a teacher, she is known for her sense of humor and warmth. One student said, "Pamela takes the fear out of learning something new."

LOAY BOGGESS

Loay is a lifetime learner and artist conversant in multiple mediums including clay, weaving, bookbinding, printmaking, and photography. In 2001 she received a BFA from CU Denver. In 2007, Loay found her passion in mud and fire.

MICHAEL BOWE

Michael is a student of both functional and decorative ceramic work and has a special interest in low fire methods and techniques. Michael is a performing artist and writer who happily discovered a love for ceramic art in the not-too-distant past.

RITA BRODERICK

Rita has been teaching for more than 12 years. She is currently a teaching artist for the Denver Center Academy and Art Reach, where she focuses on elementary school curriculums through improv, creative drama and Shakespeare. Rita has been involved in the acting community for 20 years and is an actress, director and playwright.

TERESA CARSON

Teresa has always had a natural affinity for the creation of all things art. At a very early age, she decided that she would be an art teacher. Teresa holds both bachelor's and master's of arts in education from the University of New Mexico. While her main emphasis is a specialization in ceramics, her minor is fine arts drawing.

HOLLY CAUSEY

Holly has been learning and teaching art, fiber arts, cooking, sewing, crafts and quilting for many years. In working with children she has found joy and fun and loves to explore their world and their openness to creativity. Holly approaches these subjects not just as a project but as a passion.

JUDIE DICKINSON

Judie has been weaving since the early 1980s (unless you count a potholder loom when she was 10). A teacher of high school Spanish, she was part of a team teaching Southwest studies that included arts and crafts. Judie took an adult education class in weaving on a floor loom and has been caught in its "web" ever since.

GAIL FIRMIN

Gail mentors for the Developmental Disability Resource Center's Art & Soul program, teaching art classes to disabled adults for the past 10 years. She teaches drawing and watercolor classes for the City of Lakewood. She is active with the Lakewood Arts Council and a member of its co-op gallery, exhibiting her work in graphite, watercolor, pastels and mixed media.

KRISTEE GRAHAM

Kristee is an internationally collected fine art painter, sculptor and jewelry designer. Her work has been shown at various fairs and festivals throughout Colorado and in many wholesale and retail venues in the U.S. Kristee is now focusing her craft on inspiring young people to follow their creative dreams.

JOY JENSEN

After a lifetime of working with fiber, Joy has been weaving for over nine years and continues to love all of the possibilities that are presented through color, texture and pattern. There seems to be infinite opportunity to learn and create through weaving. As a teacher, Joy loves helping students develop their projects and see them through to completion and success!

GARY JUGERT

Gary is a lifelong Lakewood resident who plays piano, guitar, and way too much ukulele. He's composed a number of musicals, is finishing his first symphony, wrote a couple of novels, founded the Rocky Mountain Ukulele Orchestra, likes cats, and works at Starbucks to pay bills.

Visit Lakewood.org/Classes to find out more about our amazing instructors!

INSTRUCTOR BIOS

DIANNE LOSASSO

Dianne is a talented instructor, international performer and choreographer. She is the owner and manager of Dance Fusion International. She was a performing member of the renowned AVAZ International Dance Theater in Los Angeles and has appeared on TV and in instructional dance DVDs.

ISMAEL LOZANO

Ismael "Izzy" is a Colorado native and has worked in the Denver Public School system for over 17 years at every grade level as well as the collegiate level at Metropolitan State University. He has taught for the Art Students League of Denver and has taught classes at the Smithsonian Latino Center in Washington, D.C. He has worked as an oil painter for over 22 years. His work currently hangs in collections as far east as Philadelphia, and he has shown as far west as Diablo Valley College in California.

JAMES MCLELLAN

James has been working in ceramics for more than 18 years. Since receiving his BFA from Metropolitan State College of Denver, he has continued teaching and showing his work in Denver and out of state. James enjoys working in all of the ceramic arts and teaching beginners on the pottery wheel.

JUDY MCCANN

Judy's work is a culmination of years of studying pottery and jewelry art forms. Her love of pottery led to her interest in metalsmithing. Judy is the founding member of "Painted with Fire Art Guild" at Washington Heights and is involved in many summer markets.

SUSAN MICHALAKES

Susan has been an avid crafter most of her life and enjoys dabbling in a variety of different crafts. Her passions includes Zentangle inspired art and knitting/spinning. She was fortunate to be able to travel to Providence, Rhode Island in April 2017 to obtain her certification as a Zentangle teacher. This was a great experience! Professionally, Susan has worked in the field of developmental disabilities for over 30 years and truly enjoys the wide variety of people she has been able to meet over the years.

RITA MOORE

Rita has been an artist for over 40 years. She began as an artist/graphics illustrator for the Boeing Company in Seattle. She is a private instructor and freelance artist as well as an instructor at Washington Heights teaching the art of painting on porcelain. She has a compassion for wildlife, animals and humans, which influences her art.

NORBERT NAGEL

Norbert has served as co-president of the Pastel Society of Colorado. Most of his work is done plein-air, working to capture the feeling of a landscape more than copying it. His background includes working with regional pastel artists and an academic background at Metropolitan State College of Denver and Colorado State University. He has won several awards for his plein aire paintings.

CALI NASS

Cali has been involved with dance since the age of three, and has a passion for teaching. She has studied many styles of dance and attended multiple studios that would include Maxine's Studio of Dance, Metamorphosis, The Young Dance Academy, and Annita's Dance Studio. She hopes to ignite a passionate spark in all of her students for the world of dance, along with self-confidence and self-expression.

CHRISTINE O'DEA

Christine has an education degree from the University of Maine and a fine arts degree from Metropolitan State College of Denver. She shows her ceramic/mixed media installations in local galleries.

MARÍA CECILIA OLANO SARDI

María's first contact with dance is owed to Brazilian jazz where she acquired her first technical style and performed interpretation stage dancing both in theater and in television drama. She studied at the Martha Graham School where she worked with renowned choreographers and teachers including Martha Graham herself. She got her B.F.A in Dance at SUNY Purchase New York University. María was awarded her doctoral dissertation from Catholic University in Valencia, Spain in January 2016.

BREANNE PARETS

Breanne trained in Loveland at The Studio and the Mary Constantine-Nelson Dance Centre primarily in Ballet with over 15 years of experience. This will be Breanne's first year as an instructor, as she has been assisting at the LCC for the past two years.

For more in-depth information on our instructors, please visit Lakewood.org/Classes

INSTRUCTOR BIOS

LAUREY PATTEN

Laurey is a certified PMC jewelry artist, a potter, and a fiction writer who loves to teach. Her fascination with clay began while working as an archaeologist and site illustrator on medieval castle sites in England. Her work has been shown in Washington, D.C., Virginia and Colorado. In her "spare" time, Laurey enjoys painting, sketching, herbology, writing fantasy and just plain having fun.

ALINA DEAC PELEGRIN

Alina has been an illustrator, painter and expressive sculptor over the last couple of decades. She turned her attention to mosaic fine arts with explorations in color and andamento, followed by advanced studies in application and cutting techniques. Her mosaics and illustrations have been exhibited in several shows on the West Coast and Colorado. Alina is a member of the Colorado Mosaic Artists Organization.

SLAWA RADZISZEWSKA

Slawa specializes in realistic portraiture, figure painting and other representational imagery. She works from live models or photos, using oils, pastels, charcoal or watercolor. Slawa believes that creating art will fulfill our potential and that in learning new skills, we always stretch ourselves beyond our limits. As a result, this process can bring joy not only to us, but to others as well.

JESSICA RIGGS

Jessica graduated from Colorado State University with a B.A. in dance and a B.S. in dietetics. During college she had the opportunity to work with many well-known choreographers and teachers. Her own choreography was selected on multiple occasions for showcase in the CSU Fall and Spring Dance Concerts as well as for adjudication in the 2007 American Dance Festival.

RATHA SOK

After picking up his first spray can at the age of 15, Ratha has devoted himself to expressing himself with this creative tool. A student at Metropolitan State College of Denver, majoring in business management and minoring in entrepreneurship, he owns his own clothing line while still creating artwork and murals. Ratha hosts workshops and teaches classes for youth and the community by showing them that graffiti is an art form and how it can be used in a positive way.

JACKI ROBERTS

Jacki's first encounter with clay was during her senior year at Golden High School where her art teacher, Millie Morgan, convinced her she should get her hands dirty. While Jacki enjoys many mediums, from sketching, painting, metalsmithing, etc., somehow her passions for art seem to reemerge in clay. She enjoys throwing, hand building, sculpture and monoprinting. Her favorite undertakings are those which tell a story of times gone by.

JUDITH SCOTT

Judith has an MFA from Denver University. For over 30 years she has been teaching various mediums. Currently she teaches at the Lakewood Cultural Center, the Denver Botanic Gardens and the Art Students League in Denver. She is a lifetime member of the Pastel Society of America, winning many awards over the years and is included in several art books.

JOSEPH SIKORA

Joseph was trained in traditional woodcarving in Bavaria, Germany. He worked for 10 years as a freelance carver while in Bavaria and returned to the United States in 1991. He displays and sells his pieces at Sikora Woodcarving in Louisville.

BOB SMITH

A renowned artist and studio potter for more than 40 years, Bob started his career working in functional stoneware but quickly moved to low-fire work, especially raku. His current work reflects an increased interest in Terra sigillata and saggar firing, which has made a large impact on his work in scale, gesture and surface treatment.

THERESE SPEARS

Therese is a Black Belt Nia Instructor who has been teaching since 1998. She is an AFAA fitness professional that also teaches Zumba, Mat Pilates, Yoga and more. Therese strives to be an inspiration to all her students by showing them how to be fit, happy and healthy.

ANNE VAN LEEUWEN

Anne has been a hand papermaker for over 30 years and has taught paper making and cyanotype. She received her B.A. in Design from UCLA. Her papermaking training includes work at Carriage House (Brookline, MA); Fabriano, Italy (Paper's first home in Europe); Taos Papermaking; and the International Association of Papermakers workshop's in Italy and France.

INSTRUCTOR BIOS

SUMI VON DASSOW

Well-known as a potter, teacher and writer, Sumi has work that includes brightly glazed functional pieces, burnished and pit-fired vessels and ceramic sculpture. She has exhibited and won awards in major national and local shows, including the Cherry Creek Arts Festival. She has written two books and produced a DVD, published numerous articles about pottery, and taught workshops across the country.

JULIA WIRTH

Julia's passions are the arts and teaching. Julia is an active performer and has toured throughout Colorado, California and Boston and performed in such venues as Ellie Caulkins Opera House (Denver), Boston Conservatory and Carnegie Hall (NYC) to name a few.

RUTHANN WOODS

Ruthann has focused on painting landscapes in pastel since 2002. She won awards for her paintings in oil and pastel. She studied art, design and business in college. Color and design were her focus in quilting for 13 years. In pursuit of her interest in the field of art therapy she explored sculpture and ceramics. Ruthann combines her fascination with nature and her passion for color in painting landscapes. She has been teaching landscape pastel painting classes since 2009.

ARTIST HIGHLIGHT

What I love most about being a part of Washington Heights Arts Center is the sense of community. The staff and students make this a welcoming and exciting place to learn and create. Students of all levels of experience are welcomed and encouraged. One would be hard pressed to find a center with the facilities available to students that we enjoy here.

I have been teaching here for eight years and consider myself honored to work with such an amazing group of instructors and staff.

My classes include beginning and intermediate pottery, which focus on using the wheel and introduction to basic glazing and firing. Hand-building is where we concentrate on non-wheel work and sculptural forms. Soda firing is an alternative firing technique for all types of work. We look forward to having you be a part of the community!

PUMPKIN CARVING WORKSHOP

Grab your best friend, spouse or neighbor because you are invited to create a superb carved pumpkin under the guidance of a master pumpkin carver! This workshop is led by Barry Brown who has been featured on "David Letterman," "The Tonight Show," "Good Morning America," and movies including "Hocus Pocus". We begin with a fun carving demonstration as he shares tips and insider information that will give you confidence as you and your partner carve into an already pre-scooped pumpkin. While you are having fun and carving, Barry will come around and give personalized attention and advice. To top off the evening, pumpkins will be illuminated in our plaza for the Grand Lighting Ceremony and a spook-tacular photo opportunity. So don't forget your cameras!

All materials provided: Each pair receives one pumpkin, a pattern, and a mini-kit of Barry's favorite carving tools. Patterns provided are so that they can be successfully carved by all levels of carvers.

Ages: 7 and up, children under 13 must be accompanied by an adult.

Price: $45 for up to 3 participants, $25 per extra pumpkin
