

Aquila Theatre Guided Tour of Mary Shelley's "Frankenstein"

Don't miss this opportunity to expose your students to highlights of Mary Shelley's "Frankenstein." A guided tour by Aquila serves not as a condensed version of the play, but rather as an educational performance meant to guide the student audience through the play's key scenes. An actor hosts the tour by introducing the main characters and providing a narrative link between scenes. These scenes are acted out in costume.
