

PROCLAMATION

In Appreciation of Randy Rudloff
In recognition of his conscientious and dedicated service to the City of Lakewood

- WHEREAS, the Mayor and the City Council of the City of Lakewood, Colorado, desire to formally express appreciation to Randy Rudloff, who has served the City of Lakewood in a dedicated, conscientious manner; and
- WHEREAS, Randy Rudloff has provided thirty years of valuable service to the City of Lakewood, beginning April 18, 1974 and again on March 4, 1981 as a Building Maintenance Skilled Craft Specialist, Building Maintenance Supervisor, and Facilities Superintendent for the City of Lakewood's Department of Community Resources; and
- WHEREAS, he has consistently demonstrated himself as an exemplary employee who's dedication to the building and facility operations of the City of Lakewood has never been questioned; and
- WHEREAS, he served with distinction as the Project and Construction Manager on the construction of the Civic and Cultural Center buildings; and
- WHEREAS, he spent countless hours working on this project bringing it to a successful completion; and
- WHEREAS, he has received a Mayor's Award and numerous commendations recognizing his service to the City; and
- WHEREAS, it is fitting that, in conjunction with Randy Rudloff's retirement from the City of Lakewood, we formally recognize his numerous contributions and express to him our sincere thanks for a job well done.

NOW, THEREFORE, on behalf of the City Council and the people of the City of Lakewood, I, Steve Burkholder, mayor of the City of Lakewood, Colorado, by virtue of the authority vested in me, do hereby proclaim appreciation to Randy Rudloff for his 30 years of service to the City of Lakewood.

GIVEN under my hand and Seal of the City of Lakewood, this 13th day of February, 2006

Stephen A. Burkholder, Mayor
