Demonstrator Information & Release

Celebrate autumn at the City of Lakewood's signature event, Cider Days. Honoring the region's agricultural heritage, this unique festival features fresh pressed and organic cider by the glass or half-gallon and is host to the state's largest antique and vintage tractor pull. The event also includes live entertainment, a petting zoo, wagon rides, amusements and activities for children, historic demonstrations and museum tours — all included in the family friendly admission.

Selection Process

Demonstrators will be accepted into the event based on the following selection criteria: event relevance, guest interest, product and/or service diversity and historic relationship. This is a City of Lakewood sponsored event. All applications are accepted and considered according to Equal Opportunity Employment (EOE) standards.
