REGIONAL CONTEXT

Located in Jefferson County, Lakewood is Colorado’s fifth most populous city. Lakewood occupies 45 square miles, primarily comprised of urban and suburban development that is strategically positioned between the state’s capital city and the Rocky Mountains. Lakewood residents enjoy easy access to Colorado’s iconic outdoor playground while simultaneously remaining at the center of commerce, culture and entertainment in the Denver metropolitan area.

Lakewood is a home rule city that operates under the council-manager form of government. The city is geographically organized according to five city council wards that each elect two representatives to the council.

In addition to the parks, programs and amenities offered by the Community Resources Department, Lakewood residents also enjoy arts, parks and recreation facilities provided by neighboring agencies and partners.
